

Revisions delay police contract

By HENRY CANTIN

Whether the City of Romulus receives a 24-hour police protection contract with the Wayne County Sheriff's Department of the city develops its own 10-man police force depends on a final draft of new contract revisions, Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael disclosed Monday.

The contract revisions were recommended by the Law Enforcement and Public Safety Committee of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners and were made public at a hearing attended by Romulus officials last week.

The contract for Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol services between the city and the county was approved by the city council five months ago.

The proposal had been referred to three agencies by the county commissioners, the County Auditor, the Civil Service Commission and the Wayne County Prosecutor, legal advisor to the board.

These three agencies were asked for a study and recommendation, since the proposed contract was to be a model for future pacts.

The city council, fed up with the long delay, issued an ultimatum to the Board of Commissioners to take official action on the contract or the city would develop its own police department. A May 20 deadline was set.

Last week the Law Enforcement Committee came up with recommendations calling for a change in the cancellation clause and reporting that the cost of the proposed contract would be higher.

The previously council-approved contract was for five years at an initial cost of $348,000 for the first year and allowed cancellation at any time with six months notice.

The initial contract provided the complete police services of the sheriff's department 24 hours a day, absorbing of the present police force with all their rights and seniority protected within the sheriff's department.

According to Commissioner William G. Suzore (D-22nd Dist.), it was the first time that the Law Enforcement Committee had ever received the entire proposed contract and it was on Tuesday, May 16, that the committee made the revisions known. Suzore is a committee member.

The county revisions call for a minimum two year contract with a one year notification of expiration required by either side.

The committee reported that "rising costs" have forced the county to charge $189,216 per unit of patrol service instead of $175,000 cost proposed in the original contract.

Suzore said the county initiated the two-year minimum clause as a protective measure.

"The way they had it," Suzore said, "Romulus could give us six months notice the day after we sign the contract."

"How do we know that they're not just trying to unload some unwanted cops on us?" he added.

The unit of service consists of one patrol car, one patrolman on days, two on afternoons and two on the night shift with all the back up services of the sheriff's office.

In the revisions, the county has offered to absorb police on a pay scale based on their years of experience with the Romulus Police Department.

Romulus Police themselves, however, feel that their years

Request for change denied

School boundaries remain

By TRUDY KETELHUT

Romulus School District boundaries won't be coterminous with city boundaries yet as the Romulus Board of Education was denied two of three requests for property transfers Thursday night.

Following a public hearing on the property transfers, the Wayne County Intermediate Board of Education voted to deny requests by the Romulus board to annex land in the neighboring Wayne Community and Woodhaven school districts.

A request to give a portion of the Romulus district located northeast of Van Born and Merriman roads to the Wayne schools was approved. The area will become a part of the Wayne district July 1, 1971.

Intermediate Board Trustee Carl Morris excused himself from participation in the meeting because he is also a member of the Romulus school board.

To make its district boundaries coterminous with city boundaries, the Romulus board petitioned for permission to annex a small southern portion of the Wayne district, and the northernmost portion of the Woodhaven district and to give a portion of its own district located in Westland to the Wayne district.

Robert McConeghy, Romulus Superintendent of Schools, explained the rationale behind the requests. In a letter sent to the intermediate school board, he stated that coterminous boundaries have been a goal of the school board since the city's incorporation more than a year ago.

He added that it would help in summer tax collection, and make election precincts the same for city and school elections.

Davis Draper, Romulus board secretary, presented the Romulus position. He cited the cooperative summer recreation program between the city and school district as another reason for coterminous boundaries.

Students currently in the eleventh and twelfth grades would be permitted to complete high school at their present locations, he promised.

Wayne School Board president Donovan McCreery was critical of the Romulus board for its handling of the situation.

"We are quite distressed that the Romulus board didn't contact us to tell us about the proposal. Instead, we heard it first from intermediate officials. It was a very poor (Continued on Page 3)

Following Mayors veto

Council must rehash proposed budget

By HENRY CANTIN

Romulus City Council will reconsider a previously approved 1971-72 general operating budget for the City of Romulus this week.

The council-approved city budget adopted by a vote of four to three on Friday, May 14, a day before deadline, was vetoed by Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael.

The mayor's action occurred within the 72 hours provided by the City Charter for veto action.

Mayor Carmichael, in vetoing the budget, reported that "the budget did not provide sufficient funds with which to conduct the business of the city for the fiscal year 1971-72."

The charter requires a two thirds majority vote of the city council to override the mayor's veto. This would require five members of the seven man council.

The mayor reported last week that numerous recommendations made by him to council were completely ignored by the council members.

The four to three council vote for the proposed budget makes a two thirds majority vote unlikely unless changes and adjustments in some areas of the budget are made to meet mayoralty recommendations and those of opposing council members.

The councilmen who voted against the budget are James C.

Stewart, William M. Oakley and Fred Junior Block. Those in favor were Council President Jimmie Raspberry, Ellis T. Pennington, Edmund Bizek and Brooker T. Edwards.

The proposed budget, as approved by the council, was a balanced budget in the amount of $2,261,849. It provided for an increase of .8 tenths of a mill, or 80 cents per $1,000 property valuation, state equalized.

Based on approximately 92 percent tax collection, this would bring additional revenue of $125,928, or a total of $748,252 during the new fiscal year.

The city has a carry-over from last year's budget of $100,000.

Under the council-approved budget, the current city tax rate levy of 4.40 mills would be increased to 5.20 mills per $1,000 of property valuation, state equalized.

The current total city tax rate is 11.50 mills. This would be hiked to 12.30 mills under the proposed budget vetoed by the mayor.

The total city tax levy consists of 5.20 for operations, 4.10 mills for sewer and three mills for water. Included in the 5.20 mills is .4 tenths of a mill for Romulus' share in the operation of the Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA.)

City Council must act within two weeks to override the mayor's veto and take final action of the proposed budget. The council was expected to take some action Tuesday night.

Roman, Enterprise move into landmark

The Belleville Enterprise and Romulus Roman weekly newspapers will be operating out of new Belleville headquarters, located at 405 Main St., by the end of next week.

Target date for opening the new office, housed in one of the Belleville area's landmark structures built more than 100 years ago, is June 4.

The building, which includes offices of Oxbow Homes, housed the Van Buren Township administrative office for more than 25 years until 1967 and also formerly served as the Secretary of State office and Belleville Police Department.

"All operations will continue as they are now," said Robert J. Bradshaw, general manager of the two newspapers and The Daily Eagle in Wayne.

"With the move, which will locate us about a block closer to the heart of town, we hope to remain an integral part in the progress of the community," Bradshaw added.

The newspaper office will be moving from its current site of more than 15 years at 330 Main St.

Huron School District bus drivers was in protest over a scheduled trip to Greenfield Village by second, third and fourth grade students on chartered Greyhound busses.

The bus drivers apparently thought that the school district had ignored them in hiring Greyhound for the transportation.

All but three school buses failed to make the 8:10 a.m. run to take the children to school. Bus service for high school students was not affected.

The bus drivers began to call in sick for the second run, leaving Hannan Road and Riverside Elementary School without bus service. Parents immediately made plans to get their children to school.

School Superintendent Byron K. Antcliff reported that the trip was the project of seven teachers who raised $220 for the bus and admissions to "Country Fair" at Greenfield Village. It was not sponsored by the school and it was the only field trip this school year.

"Since a private group organized the trip, they were not obligated to hire school buses," Antcliff said.

Huron drivers stop the buses

for field trips due to a lack of funds.

Jack Ford, spokesman for Local 214 of the Teamsters State, County and Municipal Workers, bargaining agent for the bus drivers, said:
"The bus drivers became angry when they learned Greyhound buses were hired for the Greenfield Village trip. In protest, the drivers called in sick for the second run, leaving Hannan Road and Riverside Elementary School students with no bus service."

He added that the drivers stopped service because they were not aware of the project's sponsor.

"Nobody told us it was a private group. The bus drivers thought it was a school district trip and couldn't see why they were not hired," Ford said.

The school buses made the regular runs for kindergarten students at noon and afternoon runs on schedule.

Following Monday night's school board meeting, members of the school board began discussions on new contract negotiations.

The board appointed its negotiating team for new contract talks with Local 214. They are:

School Board Attorney Thomas Nordberg, chief negotiator; Frank Brown, school bus supervisor; Luke Wegienka, assistant school superintendent; and Carl Renton, school district's business manager.

way to handle the situation, McCreery stated during the hearing.

No one other than Romulus board members spoke in support of the Wayne and Woodhaven annexations. Two of the four Westland residents present indicated they favored making their area a part of the Wayne district.

McCreery and Wayne Superintendent Harry Howard explained the Wayne board had no real objections to the annexation for geographical reasons.

"The geography isn't important. We're concerned with the citizens involved," McCreery stated.

All of the affected families but one living in the Wayne school district signed a petition stating they did not want to become a part of the Romulus school system.

A copy of the petition was presented to the intermediate school board as well as a similar petition signed by Woodhaven district residents.

Howard stated Wayne area spokesmen indicated the group would rather pay the higher rate of taxation in the Wayne school district than become a part of the Romulus district.

The operating millage rate for the Wayne Community Schools is currently 37.7

compared to 26.9 for Romulus. None of the school districts involved has a millage renewal on the ballot this spring.

Residents and all three of the school boards involved have until May 30 to appeal the intermediate school board's decision to the State Board of Education.

Priest, parish having anniversary event

Rev. Kernosek spent his early years in Lemont, Pa., where his father worked in the coal mines. He attended school in Lemont and continued his education in Uniontown, Pa., where he attended St. John's High School.

In 1939, he came to Detroit to further his desire to become a priest. He was unable to enter the seminary immediately, but was advised to attend college and then he would be accepted.

Rev. Kernosek procured employment at the Ford Rouge Plant, first in engineering department and then as secretary to the employment manager.

With the money earned at the Ford Rouge Plant, he put himself through the University of Detroit and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1942. He immediately entered Sacred Heart Seminary, Detroit, and graduated in 1943.

He then attended SS Cyril and Methodius Seminary, Orchard Lake, Mich., and was ordained on June 8, 1946.

His ordination ceremony was held in Blessed Sacrament Cathedral, Detroit, on June 9, with his family present to receive his first blessing.

Rev. Kernosek was made an assistant at Holy Name Church, Detroit then was appointed the Chancery Office as a vice chancellor under Edward Cardinal Mooney.

He was later appointed assistant pastor at St. Rita's

Detroit. Other parishes served by Rev. Kernosek were St. Joseph's, Monroe; St. Lawrence and St. Bartholomew's both in Detroit and St. Francis Xavier, Ecorse.

Rev. Kernosek is a priest active in civic affairs and works for the good of the community in the newly formed Romulus Chamber of Commerce, where he is the first chaplain. He is also chaplain of the First Friday Club of Wayne along with other clubs and veteran groups.

St. Aloysius Church was first established as a mission of St. Anthony Catholic Church of Belleville in June, 1947. Rev. Aloysius Guzik was the first mission pastor. Authorities of Romulus Township granted permission for church services in the township hall. The first Mass was said by Fr. Guzik in September, 1947.

Later, land which was part of the Albert Ozga homestead was purchased and the church built. The doors of the new church were opened for the first Mass on Easter Sunday, 1948.

The first and second pastor also celebrated their silver jubilees at St. Aloysius.

In March, Romulus City Council adopted a resolution honoring and commending Rev. Kernosek's long service to the spiritual needs of the community and his parishioners.

Festival designed for Westland pride

A person's "gotta have heart" and a community needs pride.

Westland's "celebration of Community Pride," the Westland Spring Festival, is designed to bring citizens from all spectrums of belief and all corners of the city into one giant celebration of youthful vigor and pride in their community.

If Westland has nothing else, it has youth, vigor and drive - but sometimes one could wonder about the pride.

Is Westland just another "bedroom" community full of commuting business men - or is it a growing vital city in the heart of Western Wayne County?

Admittedly, the city got off to a poor start - incorporating to avoid annexation - and naming itself after, of all things, a shopping center.

Through stagnant days of political struggle, and lack of development, the city paid its price of being young and inexperienced, and learned its lesson the hard way - a city needs pride to develop.

Pride, community identification, a personality; they're all something Westland lacked for many years.

Maybe some identification is coming, because one can talk to outsiders who think the shopping center is named after the city. It took the city five years to win that battle.

Now, though, Westland needs a community spirit, something found in many of the surrounding communities.

It needs the civic clubs, neighborhood groups and just plain old non-aligned citizens to join together and make the community a good place to live.

Neighbors have to talk to one another, and have to be able to smile when they see a fellow Westlander on the streets of a foreign community.

Neighbors have to join together in projects for the community's development.

The first project is "The Spring Festival". Hopefully, all the neighbors will make it work. Later, those same neighbors can find other projects for community betterment, and work on those too.

For now, the city would have to thank the citizens, and those people aligned with civic groups, homeowners associations and special clubs for their cooperation.

Now, it needs the citizens to come out, and celebrate - to learn pride, and help make Westland something other than what was left over after all the other communities pulled out of Nankin Township.

Righteousness questioned

The righteousness of legislators who jump every consumer protection bandwagon that comes along is more than a little tiresome, just as is their holier-than-thou concern with honesty.

Some of the most notorious protectors are the most hypocritical. Even while they talk of protecting the consumer in one breath, they will in the next breath - advocate greater and greater public spending, greater deficits and more new and costly government programs to "help" the people.

They say nothing of the confiscatory taxes that must inevitably follow in the wake of these spending sprees. Why say anything about it? Chances are the bill will come due after they have retired from office and long since quit preaching honesty and "consumer protection".

What the public needs right now is fewer crusades for laws to make private citizens honest and more action towards saving the substance of life from the legislative dogooders and the tax collector.

May 25, 1946 - A "wild rampage" of unauthorized solicitations of local merchants and townfolk was the object of an attack by the Wayne Chamber of Commerce which is taking steps to protect the town from solicitors of this type.

With the usual Indianapolis Speedway 500 mile pre-race gossip occupying first position in sports circles throughout the country and local atmosphere still more dense with talk of the current Golden Jubilee we were handed a picture of the old "Winton Bullet," holder of numerous speed records 40 years ago.

Simultaneous with receipt of the picture, we were listening to a radio announcer blaring out the fact that a race car designed and built in the neighboring Village of Novi had smashed all existing speed records in time trials on the famed auto race track.

Lottery proposal will face voters

The house made two major decisions in recent days. It agreed to place before voters a proposition which would allow the state of Michigan to conduct revenue raising lotteries and approved a new "No-Fault" divorce law.

Four other states presently raise money through lotteries: New York, New Jersey, New Hampshire and Vermont. A number of other states are considering lotteries. In order to start one in Michigan, however, we must change the state constitution which says that "the legislature shall not authorize any lottery nor permit the sale of lottery tickets."

Any amendment to the constitution must be approved by voters. However, the legislature can, by a two-thirds vote in both houses, place a proposed constitutional amendment on the ballot.

Both the house and senate have now done this on the lottery question. The senate vote was 27 to 4. There was more opposition in the house where the vote was 74 to 29, which is just over a two-thirds majority.

The governor has indicated he is opposed to lotteries. However, unlike a bill, a resolution to place a proposed constitutional amendment on the ballot does not require his approval.

If voters do approve the amendment, the legislature will be able to go ahead and write laws to govern lottery operations.

There remains, as of this writing, some question as to when the matter will be on the ballot. The house version of the resolution specified that the referendum will be on the ballot in a special election next Nov. 2. The senate version does not specify a vote this year. Senate supporters of the proposal apparently prefer to wait until the general election in November, 1972. This difference will have to be worked out.

The "No-Fault" divorce proposal would change Michigan's 125-year-old divorce law which permits termination of marriage only for specific reasons, such as mental cruelty, adultery or non-support. One of the two parties must be proven guilty of one of these faults.

The bill passed by the house and sent to the senate would permit the court to simply determine that there has been a breakdown of the marriage relationship "to the extent that the objects of matrimony have been destroyed, and there remains no reasonable likelihood that the marriage can be preserved."

The bill passed by a 72 to 22 vote.

The new law would not, however, affect court consideration of such matters as child custody, child support or alimony. It is felt that this bill would not increase the incidence of divorce, but would remove much of the bitterness, emotion and conflict which exist under our present law.

There were a number of other arguments for the 11, including the fact that only rarely is one party in a divorce, totally guilty and the other party totally innocent. Usually, both partners are responsible in one way or another for the breakdown in the marriage.

Current law also often creates conditions under which children are using as bargaining points in divorce proceedings. In other cases, because of their desire to obtain the divorce, the husband may give up all of his property or the wife receives no property at all.

The legislation is similar to present divorce laws in such states as California, Texas and Iowa. It was recommended by the Michigan law revision commission in its annual report issued last January.

School dental program never lacks patients

By VAL CONNOLLY
PRINCIPAL AT HAYTI
ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

A local Romulus Elementary PTA that decided to spend money on "dentally indigent" children is finding that its program never lacks for clients.

In 1964 the PTA executive board of Hayti Elementary School searched many suggestions on how to best use its funds. A unanimous decision was made in favor of a dental program.

Finding a dentist for 300 children turned out to be a real challenge. The University of Michigan Dental School, The Detroit Dental Aid Society, and The Wayne County Health Department all had types of programs that were investigated.

Contract requirements from The Wayne County Board of Health regarding the phraseology interpretation revealed the stipulation that read "dentally indigent" rather than "financially indigent" and that interpretation was that any child who was not receiving dental care and had cavities was "dentally indigent". Their program was adopted.

A local dentist made the initial examinations of the children who had returned signed permission slips. Records were made as to the condition of their teeth. The worst cases were taken first and the remaining absorbed into the program.

supervision at the clinic were problems that had to be worked out. Notes were sent home requesting volunteers to chaperone at the clinic and provide transportation. On Nov. 10, 1964 the first group of children went to the clinic.

All of Hayti's children 6 through 12 years of age are eligible and are put on a six-month recall list for checkups.

Parents, in addition to driving and chaperoning, usually donate $1 toward the cost of a visit.

To date 375 students have made over 3,000 trips to the dentist at a cost of more than $7,000.

A busy dental chairman is in charge of records, reports, appointments scheduling, transportation, and chaperones. It is the very fine cooperation of the parents and volunteer drivers and chaperones that helps make the program "go".

Funds are raised by the PTA through a hot lunch program, annual fair and other fund raising activities.

Last year the Hayti Elementary Schools PTA Dental Care Program was honored as one of two Michigan nominees selected to compete for The Lane Bryant Volunteer Award for Volunteer Achievement.

Reader says money is wasted by leaders

To the editor:

According to the Romulus Roman, Wednesday, May 12, 1971, Huron School Board President, Mr. Carl Rush reports of considerable people's tax money are being wasted for court suits and attorneys fees. This is due to the pending court suit brought about by school district parents against the Huron School District for allowing alleged sex education and pornographic materials in the school's education programs.

This great concern for the wasted monies make the taxpayers hearts bleed.

What he does not state is that through neglect and non-concern by the school board to the objections of alarmed parents and petitions for screening and removing objectionable reading materials from the school program is the direct reason for this court action.

Also, Mr. Carl Rush had no concern for the wasted taxpayer's money when he was witness to the scheme to eliminate questions by the recalled three school board members who strongly objected to the questionable actions by the faculty administrative offices.

Also by authorizing payments to Mr. Thomas Norberg to engineer and prosecute in court, members of the same school board he really demonstrated his dereliction to his duty as school board president.

Questions directed to the school board members during public meetings by the writer; who is appointed as a representative of the Homeowners and taxpayers of the Sumpter School District; which has been annexed to the Huron School District, has lead to various insults and a personal invitation to the school gym with boxing gloves on by none other than the School Supt. "Mr. Byron Antcliff" himself.

The same school superintendent asked for voter support for School Board Members in the forth coming June 14 election. Yet He was the first one waiting outside of Judge Piggins' court for the court to convene.

When the writer asked Mr. Antcliff "Who was left at the school looking out for the school children's welfare"; during which time the Superintendent was advising Mr. Norberg, who was in a phone booth rounding out their latest strategy for the legality to hold the recall election. The writer was told curtly, "I am busy here, call me at my office during business hours."

"General agreement among the taxpayers is that it is time to return the control of our public schools to the control of parents for the full benefit of our children. Our children deserve better than they are now receiving. Improvements must be made.

Having genuine concern for our Children we, the taxpayers, don't mind paying for everything that our children need to make them comfort to their parents, good students at school, having good character which will enable them to become future citizens of sterling quality to make this divided community once again a friendly and pleasant place in which to live and make a home.

Airport will expand no matter what's done

To the editor:

I can't stop thinking about the very interesting meeting a friend and I witnessed last Monday evening at the high school auditorium.

When we heard that a nice man from the Wayne County Road Commission was coming all the way out here to little old Belleville to explain the proposed Willow Run Airport expansion program, we figured it would be a real blast. I must admit, it was a bit of a let-down to hear such well thought-out, intelligent questions presented to the speaker.

The speaker, by the way, was one of those chaps who started right off by telling us that he wouldn't talk over our heads or get too technical. He had a large, clear map, you see, showing the hundreds of acres the new airport would encompass. When he kept saying "we" will do this and that, a woman asked, "Who is we?" He responded, "We the people." Now, that went over my head.

He sure jumped the gun on us interested citizens when he said that there would be noise and pollution, but that the government is working on that. It is getting a little old hat anyway being run off the roads by those huge garbage trucks zooming through town from Detroit. It will be much more exciting to be zoomed by jets.

Things started to warm up when a man from the Sierra Club asked a question. From the speaker's reaction, I figured the Sierra Club was one of those motorcycle gangs from Metropolitan Park, and this tough hit town and wanted to stir up a little trouble. My friend informed me that his group was a conservation outfit which had been partly responsible for saving the Everglades in Florida. These do-gooders sure get around.

Then a cheeky little guy from Romulus informed everyone the problems they had living with Metropolitan Airport. I think he was just jealous that we'll be more centrally located to both airports. After all, if you can't get booked out of Metro, you can always buzz over to Willow Run. Our speaker did say what a great public service it would be. Some poor confused fellow sitting near by kept muttering, "Freight, freight!" He must think they're putting in a train station or something.

We were all assured government regulations state that there will be so many public hearings on this issue. I somehow left with the feeling that our nice Wayne County Representative was just putting in his time, and no matter what efforts are made, we'll get that airport.

Yes, sir, the will of "we the people" and General Motors must prevail. G.M. is certainly luckier selecting their plant locations than Van Buren its schools.

Mr. Ford also discussed another matter concerning three high school students and informed the Board of action taken.

Next discussed was the request for sabbatical leave by high school art teacher Herbert Sawyer. Mr. Kaulitz reviewed for the Board the procedure that a teacher must follow to request such a leave. It was noted that a required detailed outline did not accompany his request. Motion by Sayre, supported by Schweigert, that request be denied on grounds of being incomplete. Motion carried.

A request has been received to begin negotiations with the teachers for a new contract. Dr. Muse and Mr. Bole were appointed to serve on the negotiating committee.

To the Editor:

Letter cites need for physical involvement

To the editor:

Several weeks ago a letter had appeared in this column written by Mr. Adam Janowski, Jr., of Belleville, expressing his "feeling" toward the entire political system in the United States today.

The writer overtly expresses his "disgust" for the system under which we live, and for the apparent stupidity and apathy of the American Voter who goes to the poll just to pull the lever for the party of his favor rather than becoming "...aware of the issues".

In the same context the writer sharply criticizes former township officials, the state senator, and the state representative, as well as the radical-leftists who are referred to as "...bum(s)..."

With this thought in mind, Mr. Janowski calls upon the young people of the area to realize that something is wrong and is hoping that they will "...be the ones to do something about it."

In conclusion the writer requests the young people that "...one must read about what is going on...do something about it." And leaves the thought "...To the young people in my generation I suggest that you go out tomorrow and register to vote...you can effectively do something about the problems which you say are hopeless today."

Mr. Janowski, it is easy to condemn, to mock, and to sneer at others or their thoughts; but it is very difficult to constructively add to that which is basically sound—the constitution of the United States—the American political system.

Voltaire once said, "I do not agree with one word of what you are saying, but I shall defend your right to say what you want, even with the risk of losing my life."

Our political system, which has given you that right to say what you feel and believe without the fear of reprisal in the physical or economic sense.

The American political system is basically sound and just. It is however, the men who administer that system who sometimes deviate from the basic platform. As bad as our system is, or even has been, it is still amazing that this country has progressed as far as it has.

Every four years this nation undergoes a revolution and civil strife in the form of national elections. Equality and justice are nice words, and this country does not have the lilly-white hands we like to think it has.

The constitution legalized slavery, the Civil War reversed that decision with the 13th, 14th, and 15th amendments; the Supreme Court reversed that in 1896 with the separate but equal concept; and finally the Supreme Court reversed that in 1956 with the decision in the Brown vs. Topeka, Kansas Case.

Does this detract from the basic rationale of the American political entity? Does this infringement, or any infringement, detract that from which maybe sound and basically just? Or should each one of us— young and old—physically work for that which we feel the best for the majority?

You, sir, ask that the young people register to vote; that the young people read about the issues. I ask that everyone get involved and become aware of the true nature of the problems from the inside rather than from the far distance. Without getting personally and emotionally involved people will never really be able to make those sound decisions so very necessary for our way of life.

Your referral to the problems of the hopeless problems of today is best answered by Plato's statement, "You are young my son, and as the years go, time will change and even reverse many of your present opinions. Refrain therefore awhile from setting yourself up as a judge of the highest matters." But it was with Aristotle who had laid the truth of a political system, if liberty and equality, as is thought by some, are chiefly to be found in Democracy, they will be best attained when all persons alike share in the government to the utmost.

I respect that you have written and expressed to all your view point but cannot totally accept that which has been stated. Time is change and change is upon us. We cannot let things stand as is for others will not allow that to occur. We— young and old alike—must become personally, physically and emotionally involved in our community, our country, our state and in our nation, or we will have nothing to get involved with. Zeuxis said once, "Criticism comes easier than craftsmanship." How true.

Charles R. Kline

negotiating with the Van Buren Public Schools transportation employees.

Principal Don White and Assistant Principal Helen Nass, from South Junior High School, were present to review and discuss with the Board of Education the board committee recommendations relative to South Junior High School. A thorough review and analysis of the committee report was presented.

Board member Robert Archer reported briefly on the results of the committee meeting and the resultant disciplinary action in the Hall and Talaga matter.

A lengthy discussion was held relative to the problem of custodial work, and upon motion by Muse, supported by Schweigert, and unanimously passed, the business office was authorized to investigate costs and conditions relative to contracting custodial work to outside firms.

The business manager was instructed to set up work records on all non-teaching personnel.

The business manager was further instructed to set up a program of applications and physical examinations for all new non-teaching employees.

SPECIAL MEETING
May 3, 1971

A Special Meeting of the Van Buren Board of Education was held in the Board Room of the Administration Building on Monday, May 3, 1971 at 8:10 p.m.

Members present: Mrs. Doris J. Roe, Mrs. Barbara J. Miller, Dr. Richard Muse, Mr. Charles Bole, Mr. James Sayre, Mr. Chauncey Schweigert, and Mr. Robert K. Archer. Also present: Superintendent Kaulitz, Curriculum Director Kohr, and Business Manager Von Destinon.

Superintendent Kaulitz reported the result of his contact with the various authorities relative to the motion at the previous meeting of placing the bond issue on the June 14 ballot. After an explanation of the legal problems involved, motion by Schweigert, supported by Miller, to rescind the resolution of April 26, 1971 relative to placing the bond issue on the June 14, 1971 ballot. Motion carried.

Superintendent Kaulitz reviewed a projection of income and expenditures for the 1971-72 school year. After a very thorough discussion, motion by Miller, supported by Muse, that a proposal be placed on the June 14, 1971 school election ballot for an increase of three mills in the operating millage for the Van Buren School District for a period of one year only. The millage proposal to be referred to the school attorney for proper wording for placing on the ballot. Motion was unanimously passed.

Motion by Muse, supported by Schweigert, to extend the existing easement to the City of Belleville for an additional approximately 10.5 feet of land lying east of the South Junior High School, for an extension of water and sewer lines. This motion was necessitated by an error in the legal description of a previous water and sewer easement grant. Motion was unanimously passed.

Czech director looks at U.S. generation gap

By HOWARD ALLEN
Eagle Movie Critic

Milos Forman, brilliant Czech director of "Loves of a Blonde" and "Fireman's Ball," has invaded America and—judging by his first film here, "Taking Off," America has invaded him.

Much of the hilarious irony which Forman finds in life and which made "Fireman's Ball" so effective is also present in "Taking Off," but it is inundated by a mass of well-fed American commercialism. The lean and hungry Czech look is gone.

The over-cut film, for example, counter-oints the story with repeated shots from pop music auditions; its points are made and over-made and beaten into the ground in a wave of the somewhat amateurish rock.

Lynn Carlin and Buck Henry are the parents of a young runaway daughter, searching for her and attempting to come to grips with her lifestyle in the Alice-in-Wonderland world of today's youth.

In Forman's most effective scene, their quest takes them to a mass dinner meeting of an organization for parents of runaway children. Later, in workshop format, they are introduced to marijuana on the theory that to fight an enemy you must know it first.

Their guide is Vincent Schiavelli, a representative from the youth culture who fends off their questions with a mock sobriety which comes closest to capturing Forman's sense of the ironic.

Afterwards, things get heavy-handed. The parents and another couple come home, and still under the influence of the marijuana they begin a strip card game. Henry, the loser, is on the card table singing when their daughter walks in.

Forman, to his credit, at least is no more sympathetic with juvenile hang-ups than with adult ones. He makes the conventional points, such as adults who are horror-struck at the thought of their children turning on drinking to excess.

Mercifully, Forman cast an equally jaded eye at juvenile foolishness.

For the usual artistic reasons, Forman casts large numbers of amateurs in the film, with mixed results as might be expected. Linnea Heacock is a natural as the daughter, but not much more. The best amateur performance is by Schiavelli, no Alice in Wonderland but rather a Mad Hatter in the real world, attempting to turn on the squares.

Most of the best performances are by pros, such as Miss Carlin and Henry, the sorely beset parents, and by Audra Lindley and Paul Benedict, as their card partners.

Buried somewhere Forman makes a point. Henry is not merely a protagonist; he is a hero. He gets involved attempting to notify a mother of her daughter's whereabouts, despite menance and apathy about him. In all the sad excesses which follow, this basic love of fellow man should not get lost. But it does as do several of Forman's better points.

JAZZ DANCE THEATRE — Kai Lanier and William B. Morgan rehearse for the Jazz Dance Theatre Concert at the Bonstelle Theatre June 1 and 5 at 8:30. Tickets at $1.50, and $1 for students, are on sale at the Wayne State University Theatre Box Office, Cass and Hancock or at J.L. Hudson Ticket Offices.

'Kes' --joyless picture of unhappy boy's life

By HOWARD ALLEN
Eagle Movie Critic

Life in a grimy English mining town is a pretty somber affair for a fatherless youth with a somewhat indifferent mother and a brutal brother, as depicted in "Kes," a joyless picture of a boy whose present is no brighter than his future.

Billy Casper is a not too bright youth rapidly approaching the end of an indifferent education and facing future employment apprehensively, particularly life in the mines such as is suffered by his insensitive brother.

Fatalistically, however, he at least notes that he will be paid for the misery of working while his education is merely misery without pay.

Billy's sole surcease is the kestrel hawk he has captured and trained—a curious counterpoint to the film of the boy who trained a falcon in "My Side of the Mountain," in a highly Walden-esque setting. Billy's home is far away from pristine surroundings but his training of Kes brings him the only joy in school he is to know, a brief moment in which a class comes alive as the talks about his bird; a brief encounter with one sensitive teacher.

Most of his teachers are as teutonic as his games teacher, who abuses the boy for lacking a gym suit which his mother thinks is an unnecessary expenditure. The ending is equally grim and a presumed omen for the future—continual warfare between Billy and his brother leads to the brother's murdering the hawk.

Ken Loach's film, from a screenplay by himself, Tony Garnett and Barry Hines, relies heavily on slice-of-life techniques, with long sturdy conversations, much of it irrelevant in the way that real life conversations really are.

This is reinforced by the absence of music in several sections of the film, furthering the sense of an eavesdropping camera. A further adjunct to reality in the inclusion of several scenes not wholly relevant yet furthering the atmosphere.

David Bradley, a native of the Yorkshire area who previously appeared only in school plays, is a natural as Billy; his performance is sensitive. Most of the cast is unknown; a striking performance as the unfeeling gym teacher is turned in by Colin Welland.

"Kes" deliberately turns its back on beauty at all times. C'est la vie.

Michigan is the "Great Lake State" and vacation travelers have numerous water-oriented events to choose from like the Horace E. Dodge Cup Race for unlimited hydroplanes, on the Detroit River, the Top of Michigan Aquation at Cheboygan, the Coast Guard Festival in Grand Haven and the Carp River Canoe Race at St. Ignace.

Lilac, strawberry, sugar, blueberry, potato, grape, peach, and cherry festivals, rodeos and showboats, county fairs and the big state fair round out the listings in the June-October Calendar of Travel Events.

The calendar is free for the asking, as are other Michigan vacation planning materials, and may be obtained by writing to the Michigan Tourist Council, Stevens T. Mason Building, Lansing, Michigan 48926.

Dance theater will perform

Jazz Dance Theatre, performing dance company of the Wayne State University Theatre, will present its second concert at the Bonstelle Theatre, 3424 Woodward, on June 4 and 5 at 8:30.

Jazz Dance Theatre was started last year by Jean Sabatine, the group's director and choreographer. Miss Sabatine, who is a choreographer and movement instructor for the University Theatre, has studied with Merce Cunningham, Alvin Nikolais, Herman Howell, Donald McKayle, Eliot Feld, Luigi and Matt Mattox. She is the author of the only survey on jazz dance, "Techniques and Styles of Jazz Dance."

Using the music of such artists as Yusef Lateef, Gil Evans, Herbie Mann and Booker T. and the M.G.'s, the concert will present a blending of European, East Indian and African forms, following the pattern set in the group's first Bonstelle concert last June.

The company is made up primarily of theatre students in the undergraduate actor-training program. Miss Sabatine also will appear. This core group is expanded for larger group numbers with other dancer-actors from the University Theatre.

During the past season, through the support of the Michigan Council for the Arts, the company toured local high schools and colleges with a lecture-demonstration on jazz dance.

Tickets for the concert, at $1.50 for $1 for students, are available from the Wayne State University Theatre Box Office, Cass and Hancock, telephone 577-2972, or at J.L. Hudson Ticket Offices.

Prestigious array of artists planned for symphony

During the 1971-72 season the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will host the largest and most prestigious array of guest artists ever to appear in Ford Auditorium on a subscription concert series.

Soloists for the new season will include Italo Babin, Gini Bachauer and Princess Irene of Greece, Ara Berberian, Lili Chookasian, Phyllis Curtin, Clifford Curzon, Mischa Dichter, Philippe Entremont, Christoph Eschenbach, Rudolf Firkusny, Maurice Grendron, Arturo Benedetti Michelangeli, Nathan Milstein, Itzhak Perlman, Michael Ponti, Ruggiero Ricci, the Swingle Singers, Jess Thomas and Vera Zorina.

Next year's programs will also include a number of special vocal attractions. Vera Zorina will narrate Honegger's Jeanne D'arc au bucher, together with the Rackham Symphony Choir (soloists to be announced).

The combined chorus es of Mount Holyoke and Williams colleges in Massachusetts will be featured in Prokofiev's "Alexander Nevsky," which will also be performed in Carnegie Hall and at the New Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, D.C. during the Symphony's tour next fall.

The Swingle Singers and the Symphony will offer the Detroit premier of Luciano Berio's "Sinfonia," conducted by the composer, and the world premier of a new work by Berio commissioned especially for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and the Swingle Singers.

Tenor, Jess Thomas, soprano Phyllis Curtin and bass Ara Berberian will be featured in a performance of the first act of Wagner's "Die Walkure" at next season's final subscription concert.

As previously announced the guest conductor for next season will include Luciano Berio, Dean Dixon, Rafael Fruhbeck de Burgos, Istvan Kertesz, Georg Smekow and Hans Schmidt-Isserstedt.

University of Detroit sets theater, dance workshops

The University of Detroit will again present several theatre and dance workshops in conjunction with its Second Annual Summer School for the Performing Arts. Six programs have been scheduled covering the areas of ballet, mime, acting, lighting, makeup, costumes and scenic design.

Three guest artists will be in residence to conduct workshops in mime, ballet and acting. Two additional programs have been designed by the U. of D. Theatre staff or the high school and community theatre director and the high school theatre technician.

Jon Rodriguez, Associate Director and Choreographer of the Dayton Ballet Company, will be in residence with the Summer School for two weeks, July 12 thru July 23. Mr. Rodriguez will teach four ballet classes, beginning through advanced, and an evening workshop in Technique and Repertoire. Costuming and Makeup for the High School and Community Theatre will be taught by Nancy Missimi, Costumiere for the U. of D. Theatre.

A Technical Theatre Workshop for the Young Designer will also be conducted by the design staff of the theatre program. Under the supervision of Michael Huesman and Harold Thrasher, the six-week workshop, to be held June 28 thru August 6, will concentrate on the principles of stage and lighting design, construction techniques and scene painting.

The Summer School for the Performing Arts will also host five visiting artists of the Royal Winnipeg Ballet who will conduct master classes during the week of August 9.

Area voters' opinions change over past year

A majority of voters in Belleville and Romulus believe all American troops should be withdrawn from Vietnam by the end of this year.

The findings are part of the results of a poll taken by Democratic Congressman William D. Ford throughout the 15th District.

This is the seventh year that Ford has taken the poll on national issues and the results have been inserted in the Congressional Record.

This year's poll showed a slight change in attitudes on the War in Vietnam, foreign policy and the draft.

Compared with last year's findings, the percentage of voters wanting an immediate end of the war has increased.

Last year, 52 per cent of the poll's respondents in Romulus wanted an immediate end to the war; this year, 55 per cent favored quick withdrawal.

In Belleville, 56 per cent of the voters said they believed the war should be ended this year as opposed to 54 per cent last year. This compares with 61 per cent favoring withdrawal throughout the district.

Ford also asked the voters if they felt the U.S. should reduce its troop strength in Europe and whether the U.S. should use troops to protect Israel in the event of Arab aggression.

On the first question, Belleville residents said the U.S. should maintain its present European military force of 300,000 men while 36 per cent of Romulus voters said it should be reduced. District-wide, 61 per cent favored troop reductions.

On the question of whether

American forces should intervene in an Arab-Israeli dispute, 81 per cent of Belleville voters said no and 77 per cent opposed the idea in Romulus.

Another question asked if voters would favor elimination of the draft and the creation of an all-volunteer army.

In Belleville, 59 per cent favored elimination of the draft and in Romulus the figure was 55 per cent. In the entire district, 56 per cent favored an all-volunteer army.

Among other questions on the survey, voters were asked to list the three most serious problems facing the country.

To Belleville voters crime was the number one problem in the nation with pollution and the war in Vietnam following in that order. Belleville voters agreed in total on the three problems but district-wide, voters listed inflation as the third most serious problems.

Committee study authorized

The Huron School Board has authorized its chairman Carl K. Rush to appoint a committee to study long range planning for a school building construction program for Huron School District.

The membership of the proposed committee will consist of area citizens, approximately 15 in number, who will be given the task of considering a school construction program that would be required in another five years and advise the school board.

The present enrollment in the Huron Township schools is 2,400 students. School officials anticipate a big increase in enrollment in the immediate years ahead due to the present and planned commercial residential growth of the township.

The school district is reported to be in "excellent shape" now as far as classroom facilities are concerned, Rush disclosed Monday.

"We don't know how soon or what would be required. The citizens committee to be appointed will study the potential of a planned school building program," Rush said.

He added, "We feel that proper planning now for the future will prepare us to meet future student growth demands of the school system."

Rush also reported that all present school board members are cooperating now on moving ahead on proposed programs and bringing them to logical conclusions.

Biology class saving flowers

Biology students at South Junior High School, Belleville, issued a plea Monday to residents not to pick certain wild flowers.

Many of these beautiful species are rare and in some areas extinct as man broadens his scar upon the land, they reported.

Many of the spring wild flowers protected by law include: Columbine, Jack-in-the-Pulpit, Moccasin Flower, Lady Slipper, Bloodroot, Marsh Marigold, Dutchman's Breeches, Evening Primrose, Trillium or Wake Robin and Hepatica.

Violation of this law could cost the offender $100 for picking just one.

Some of the spring wild flowers, that can be picked legally include: Forget-me-Nots, Bluets, Quaker Ladies, Common Violet (blue and yellow), Large Blue Flag (iris), Scotch Broom and Red Clover.

PLEASE DON'T PICK THE WILD FLOWERS - Matt Barnes (left) and Mike Gephart, biology students at the South Junior High School, Belleville, display a "Trillium" and asks that it along with other wild flowers not be picked. Many of these beautiful species are protected by law providing penalties up to $100.

Sports meridian

These too are our children

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

It's 2 a.m. I just tossed another piece of paper into the basket. I know I should be heading home, but this darn typewriter doesn't want to cooperate. You see, I'm trying to write about a 15-year-old Garden City boy who lost his arm in a hunting trip a year ago and today he's playing on East High junior varsity team.

They do a lot of talking about kids today, on how they're on drugs, and disobedient with no respect for people's property or their elders.

But, then, most people never met Ken Sharp. I have. Well, not exactly. I had a chance to watch him play ball the other day and I have been thinking about it ever since.

"His courage gave us courage," said Mrs. Edward Sharp, Ken's mother. "After the accident he never complained. If it wasn't for him I just don't know what we would have done." That accident...

It was November 16th, Ken and a cousin had decided to head north with the hordes of other hunters. They went to the Grand Rapids area and while in the woods Ken momentarily was separated from his cousin. The cousin saw something moving and shot at it.

The bullet caught Ken in the left arm went into the chest cage, pierced the spleen, and penetrated the stomach. He was rushed to Big Rapids where doctors said they must amputate the arm. Since there were no facilities available in the small town, Ken was conveyed to Grand Rapids.

For three days he remained in the intensive care unit, but Ken made it.

Ten days later he checked out of the hospital to resume his life.

"I put this call out for boys who wished to play baseball," said Billy Joe Young, East's junior varsity coach. "And Ken showed up. I had to admire the lad, for his determination, but I told him he would have to make the team on merit alone."

The two understood one another.

There would be no room for pity.

A six-foot, broad-shouldered sophomore, Ken had plenty of baseball experience bending him. He played for St. Mel's Little League ball club and had played ball right up to the tragedy.

But now he has a new set of challenges: one, of course, was how to catch and release the ball with one hand. The other was at the plate.

"We practiced slipping off the glove in the lobby of the school before the season got underway," said Young. "And it was amazing how this boy padded down the moves."

"He pitches the ball up about 18 inches, slides off the glove and can really release it fast, it's fantastic. You have to see him play to believe it."

Though he plays the outfield, Ken also can pitch. That's not the only thing he can do. He's learned to play tennis and bowl. In fact, his bowling team is in first place in the Garden Lanes Teenage League.

And in the fall Ken is contemplating on going out for the high school football team.

"You have to respect him for his attitude, his determination and his skill," said Young. "He's very personable young man and all of the fellows on the team respect him."

It there is any bitterness over the accident, you can't see it reflected in the good-looking lad's face.

The Sharps, who also have a 10-year-old girl, Becky, said, "We don't know why this happened to our boy, but we thank God for giving us a son we can be proud of."

Belleville bowlers eye state title

A Belleville bowling team won first place in the Prep Girls Division of the State Team Roll-Offs held recently at the Savoy Lanes, Pontiac. The meet was held under the sponsorship of the Michigan Youth Bowling Association, Eastern Area.

Team members are Linda Barker, 12, of 47016 McBride, captain; Roseann Gwitt, 13, of 41648 Savage Rd.; Robin Pyshnik, 13, of 48496 Ellen Ct.;

Lisa Smith, 11, of 1372 Wisme, Ypsilanti; and Barbara Warrens, 12, of 201 Montague.

They will now compete in the State Championship to be held at Thunderbowl in Alpena on June 19 and 20. They will receive trophies at the "Parade of Champions" Awards Dinner to be held at the Lansing Civic Center in August.

Trackmen face All-Area test

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

So, you think you're one of the best high school trackmen in the area?

Prove it! Today at 6 p.m., the third annual All-Area High School Track & Field Invitational will be staged at Garden City West High School and you're invited to do your thing—compete or view the action.

The meet—co-sponsored by The Daily Eagle, Wayne Jaycees and participating Jaycee organizations is conducted annually to select the "cream of the high school crop in track."

The winners also will be awarded trophies, provided by the Jaycees and The Daily Eagle. Those who finish second and third in each of the 14 events will be awarded medals.

The meet has developed into one of the most prestigious events on the high school calendar.

And this year another flock of outstanding prep athletes, including Belleville's Garrade Pettus, Livonia Churchill's 2-mile record holder Dennis Kurtis, Cherry Hill's versatile Phil Seibold, Robichaud's Jim Alverson, Livonia Franklin's Jim Craig, Garden City West's Donnie Andersen, Inkster's Lorenzo Reed, John Glenn's Al Bowersky, St. Mary's Daryl Delabbio and many others will be on hand.

An athlete doesn't necessarily have to attend a high school in the Associated Newspapers' area in order to participate. However, he must be a resident of that area where the Associated Newspapers are circulated.

Moreover, if an athlete doesn't attend one of the following high schools: Belleville, Huron, Romulus Wayne Memorial, John Glenn, Garden City East or West, Livonia Franklin, Churchill, Cherry Hill, Robichaud, Inkster or Wayne St. Mary's, he must have permission from his high school coach in order to compete.

That permission must be in written form.

Last year Garden City's Lynn Kellehut, who was then a student of Lutheran West, captured first place and All-Area honors in the mile run. He was the lone "outsider" to stroll away with top honors.

This year there will be a 25 cents admission price for spectators to help defray the cost of the meet.

All field events and the preliminaries of the high hurdles, 100-yard dash low hurdles and the 220 will begin at 6 p.m. High Jump - 5 feet, 6 inches Long Jump - 19 feet Pole vault - 11 feet Shop put - 45 feet

Romulus is perfect in two outings

Romulus' baseball squad continues to breeze along, and Leighton Ballard is getting tougher as the season wears on. Ballard pitched a no-hit game against Ecorse as the Eagles rolled to a 15-0 victory. Earlier, Ballard led his mates to an easy 6-2 victory over River Rouge. The two wins lifted Ballard's season record to an impressive nine wins and two losses.

Enroute to the victory over Rouge, Ballard fanned 14 Panthers. He also had a big day with the bat, collecting a pair of doubles in as many trips and getting credit for an RBI. Other big bats in the Romulus line-up included Tony Hoffman who ripped a double and a single in four trips and chased two mates home. Ken McMann had a perfect day at the plate, blasting a double and a single in as many trips and Rodney Leake, belted a home run in two trips to the plate.

Romulus then humiliated Ecorse 15-0 as Ballard notched his first no-hitter of the campaign. The big pitcher struck out six and allowed only five men to reach base. Ballard gave up two walks and hit two batters and the Eagles were guilty of one error.

The double victories last week gave Romulus a one game advantage over the rest of the Twin Valley Conference in the race for the loop flag.

Romulus settled down to business against Ecorse and slapped 18 hits, two of which were doubles.

McMann continued to be hot, knocking home two runners with a single and Frank Mayeran got into the act with a pair of singles.

Leake continued to hit the ball, collecting a pair of safeties in four trips and Keith Simmons ripped a single and a double and chased home two runs. Bill Eager knocked home two runs with a single in his only appearance at the plate.

Tony Hoffman accounted for three RBI's grabbing two singles in four trips and sophomore sensation Virgil Smith connected for three singles in as many appearances at the plate. Smith is currently hitting at a

Prep thinclads end season

With the exception of the All-Area Track Invitational, scheduled for this evening at Garden City High School, area track teams are winding up their respective 1971 schedules. Four area athletes, finished the season by competing in their respective state final meets. Garrade Pettus, Tony Ogletree and John Cross from Belleville and Paul Ingle from Huron.

Pettus had the best finish of the four, finishing third in the long jump with a leap of 23 feet 3 3/4 inches, for the best leap of his career. Pettus also contributed with a six foot, five inch effort in the high jump, good for fourth place. Jon Cross finished sixth in the two mile run with a time of 9:34.6.

Tony Ogletree competed in the hurdles, but failed to qualify. In the Class B state meet, Paul Ingle competed in the mile and finished in 16th place with a time of 4:40.

Huron's only other action was at the league meet. Dan Clark took second place in the 880 yard run with a time of 2:03. Clark's time set a new school record. Ed Fakhoury finished in fifth place in the same event with a time of 2:08.3. Ingle grabbed a second place finish in the mile with a new school record setting time of 4:37.7.

Dan Clark finished in third place in the 440 yard run with a time of 51.8. Clark is still being bothered by a knee injury, but managed to set a new school record with his 440 clocking. Dave Edge grabbed a bronze medal for his effort in the low hurdles with a time of 20.8.

Huron, currently 4-6 overall and 2-6 in the league, winds up its track season this week with a dual meet against Ida. Coach Keith Reed hopes to improve on his record before his standout performers make an appearance at the All-Area meet tonight.

Belleville grabbed a third place finish behind Allen Park and Redford Union in the Suburban Six league meeting at Belleville last week. Times and heights were down due to poor weather conditions.

Netters end poor season

Romulus' tennis team is nearing the end of a disappointing season but head coach Zane Kuryliw is looking forward to next year. Romulus currently is sitting at the bottom of the Twin Valley Conference tennis standings with a mark of 1-14, and the Eagles dropped two matches last week by losing to River Rouge 6-1 and dropping a 4-3 decision to Flat Rock.

Ron Baker is the bright spot in Romulus' line up and Kuryliw can look forward to another year from his top performer. The addition of some talented youngsters will also improve the Eagles' net chances and Kuryliw promises to send out a strong team. "It has been a disappointing year," Kuryliw said, "but the boys really tried and we are going to have a strong team next season. I know things will get better."

Terry Stevens entered the regional competition and earned a sparse two points. Romulus finished last in the field competing at the regional tournament.

Huron Chiefs

(Continued from Page 17) pitchers are afraid to give him anything to hit. A scheduled contest with Airport was postponed until Saturday, even though the rain helped Huron the first time around, the Flyers came back to take the make-up victory 5-4 in eight innings. Jamie Hinojosa was the losing pitcher as Huron put on a late inning rally to tie the game. Huron managed three runs in the seventh inning to put the contest into extra innings.

Slo-pitch gets underway

The Romulus Adult Softball league kicked off its 1971 season with a full compliment of games that saw all teams take part in the action.

Ted Marken hit a three run home run and brother Rickard slammed a two run poke in leading Baum's Funeral Home to a 25-1 shellacking over the Romulus Refugees. Baum's slammed out 31 hits and winning pitcher Ival Kinshella scattered eight hits while coasting to the victory.

Five Points bombed Guardian Coating 29-6 with a 28 hit attack. Buddy Ward and Burr Good hit home runs and had four RBI's apiece. Winning pitcher Jack Finn gave up 10 hits and helped his own cause with four RBI's of his own.

Defending champions, Anchor Block shut out Cue Corners 10-0 as Chuck Hazen held the losers to four hits. Rick Peglia, Bill Ward and Jr. Rakotz each picked up a pair of hits in leading Anchor's attack. The long ball was furnished with triples by Rakotz, Ed Labato and Tom Block.

Spearman's Fine Foods rallied to defeat Romulus Progressive 8-4. Spearman's took an early lead on Duey Cole's home run and doubles by Paul Tyron and Carl Schwallar in the second inning. Progressive tied the score in the third on singles by John Sterling and Walt Drewno. Fred Eberline walked to load the bases and two runs scored on a wild throw to the plate on Mike Sprau's ground ball. Progressive took the lead in the fourth on Ron Dick's single and Jim Halcomb's double. Progressive added another tally on back to back doubles by Sprau and Hormon Schonfeld in the fifth. Spearman's came back in the fifth to tie the score when Gary Nowling singles and Carl Schwallar connected for a double. Bill Soave and Darwin Wessel chased the runners home with sacrifice flies.

A four run output in the sixth frame won the game for Spearman's. Al Ott opened the inning with a double, Rich Spearman singles and doubles by Cole and Schwallar capped off the rally. Bill Soave was the winning pitcher and Al Ellis took the loss.

Ronnie Jones strokes a game winning triple that scored two runs in leading Moran Manor to a 3-1 victory

Belleville's National Division of the Little League got underway with the Cubs dusting off the Cardinals 7-0. Winning pitcher Tom Lane gave up only one hit while going the distances to take the victory. The Cubs picked up three runs in the second inning, two in the third and two more in the fourth.

The Pirates slipped past the Dodgers 10-9 in a free wheeling contest as winning pitcher Steve Stillwagon helped his own cause by slamming a three run homer in the first inning. Ray Green also connected with a homer in the first inning for the Dodgers.

The Dodgers held the advantage until the sixth inning when the Pirates slugged their way into the lead by scoring seven runs in the sixth frame.

The Braves made short work of the Astros and opened their season on a winning note, taking an easy 12-1 decision. The Braves are a new team in the league this year took the opening day contest behind the strong pitching of Joseph Ensich, who scattered three hits while striking out 11

Though Romulus holds a one game bulge over the rest of the league, Johnson isn't calling it a season. Their 5-1 league mark must still be tested when they face Willow Run, the only team to our Romulus' TVC record this season.

Johnson is confident, saying that he feels his squad this year is the best all-around team he has ever coached. "I've had better talent in years past, but I have never had this much balance."

Romulus faces Willow Run, Hamtramck and River Rouge this week before going into district playoff tournament action on Saturday.

Season over for preps

Pettus made the most of his speciality and won the high jump event with a height of six feet, two inches. Pettus also finished second in the long jump with a leap of 21 feet, nine inches.

Belleville finished fourth in the 880 yard relay with a time of 1:35.1 and Lonnie Clark earned a bronze medal for his third place finish in the 880 yard run. Clark's time was 2:01.

Pettus came back to take second place in the high hurdles with a time of 15.2 and Phil Combs earned a gold medal by setting a new school record in the mile with a time of 4:28.5. John Ciotte finished fifth in the same event with a time of 4:34.7.

Tony Ogletree finished second in the low hurdles event with a time of 20.4. Pettus was entered in the same event, but he tripped over a hurdle and did not finish the race.

Jon Cross set a new school record in the two mile run, winning the event with a time of 8:34.4. Gary Refitt was fifth in the event with a time of 10:25.0.

Belleville's mile relay team capped off the meet by taking a third place in the mile relay with a time of 3:30.4.

Belleville track coach Ken Head expects to have a good number of his competitors on hand at the All-Area meet. Belleville has to be considered one of the favorites in this year's competition.

Romulus traveled to the Twin Valley Conference meet at Ecorse. The second day of competition had to be postponed until last Thursday because heavy rains forced the cancellation of the conclusion of the meet, originally set for Wednesday.

Darryl Gooden showed fine form as he won the shot put with a toss of 49 feet, six inches. Marvin Williams made it one-two for Romulus with a toss of 48 feet, six inches.

Ron Buckley grabbed fourth place in the 220 yard dash with a time of 24.2. Buckley led the Eagles as he placed in three other events. Buckley's high jump of five feet, eight inches, pole vault of 11 feet six inches and long jump of 20 feet, three inches gave Romulus the bulk of their team points. The Eagles compiled a total of 22 team points but finished last in a field of four.

Coach Jess Meriweather expects to have some of his performers on hand as they go against the cream of the area thinclads at the All-Area meet. The annual meeting is set to get underway tonight at 6 p.m. at Garden City West High School with the field events. The public is cordially invited, admission is 25 cents.

Six students honored at school convocation

Six area people were among Eastern Michigan University students who were recognized for academic achievement at the university's 23rd Honors Convocation held May 5 in Peace Auditorium, Ypsilanti.

The students are Miss Ann O'Beay, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth O'Beay of 11705 Beckley, Rd., and David Sam of 408 E. Huron River Dr., both of Belleville.

Miss Carol Gall of 17925 Huron River Dr., and Miss Charlotte Sherman of 21583 Middlebelt Rd., both of New Boston.

Miss Judith Kurtzhals of 2762 Prescott and Miss Yvonne Temple of 27768 Pennsylvania Rd., both of Romulus.

The students had a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or better on a scale with 4.0 as the maximum.

Abandoned vehicle law explained by counsel

A legal opinion on the question regarding the authority and ability of the Romulus Police Department to remove abandoned vehicles that are on private property has been submitted to city council by the city's legal counsel.

Edward M. Bunn, member of the law firm of Elsmann, Young & O'Rourke, legal counsel for the city, reported to City Council that "it is the opinion of the firm that the Romulus Police Department has the authority to remove such vehicles from privately-owned property."

Bunn cited a section under the Michigan Motor Vehicle Code that states: "the police department has the authority to remove and take into custody all abandoned vehicles on private property."

The statute specifies that vehicles on private property shall be considered abandoned if they remain on the property, without the owner or lessee's consent, for a period of 48 hours.

Once the vehicle is taken into custody, usual procedures for disposing of such vehicles must be followed, Bunn added.

Treasury seeks Mrs. U.S. Bond

The U. S. Savings Bonds Division of the Department of the Treasury again is seeking a Mrs. U. S. Savings Bonds for 1971-72, to serve as "Goodwill Ambassador" in the promotion of the bond program around the nation.

She will be selected from among the 51 families representing all the states and the District of Columbia, during the "All-American Family Search and Pageant", at Leigh Acres, Fla., August 5-14.

According to A. P. Fontaine, volunteer state savings bonds chairman, Michigan families wishing to participate in the expense-paid event may obtain entry blanks for the judging of both the All-American Family and Mrs. U. S. Savings Bonds from the state office for Savings Bonds, 1400 Washington Boulevard Building, Detroit, Michigan 48226, phone 226-7375.

Parks may break attendance mark

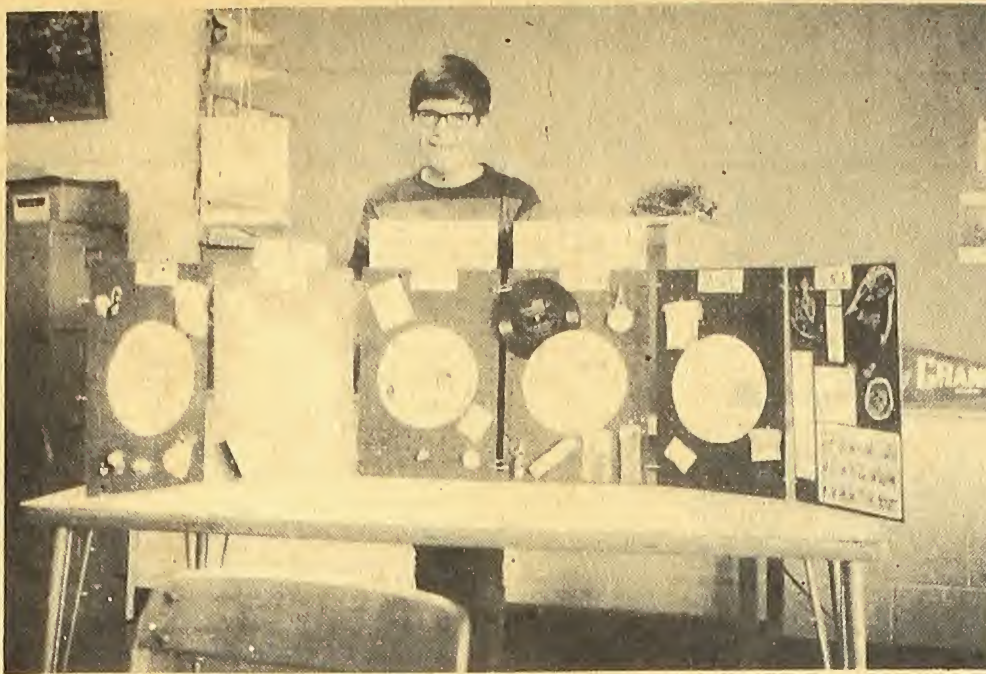

If the weather is sunny and bright, and the temperature is fairly high, the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority parks serving the citizens of Macomb, Oakland, Livingston, Washtenaw and Wayne counties may well have attendance that surpasses the record of 308,750 persons visiting its parks for the Memorial Day week-end of 1969.

These "Metro Parks", within a short drive of most Detroit area communities, include Metropolitan Beach near Mt. Clemens; Stony Creek Metropolitan Park near Utica; Marshbank Metropolitan Park near Pontiac; Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford; Hudson Mills, Dexter-Huron and Delhi Metropolitan Parks northwest of Ann Arbor; Lower Huron Metropolitan Park near Belleville and Willow Metropolitan Park between New Boston and Flat Rock.

Film shown

A 30-minute film regarding soil was presented to Sumpter Township Board Tuesday night by Dan Kisselring of the Wayne County Cooperative Soil Survey.

The presentation was made prior to the 8 p.m. township board meeting held at the township hall, located at 24483 Sumpter Rd.

A DISPLAY OF THE SENSES — Scott Dubois, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dubois, 11130 Harmony Lane, displays his exhibit on the senses at the Science Fair held at the recent meeting of Edgemont Elementary School's PTO. Along with the five senses, Scott included "The Sense of Humor."

Faust introduces bills to streamline elections

A package of 15 election bills designed to streamline Michigan's election law has been introduced in the Senate by William Faust (D-Westland).

Labeled by Faust as "election reform," the proposed legislation deals with a wide number of subjects ranging from the election of precinct delegates for party conventions to giving voting rights to persons awaiting trial.

Faust said his legislation pertaining to precinct delegates would stimulate greater citizen participation for this vital elective position by giving the delegate a ballot designation and a greater role in county and state conventions.

"I have tried," he said, "to bring the role of the convention delegate as well as state central committees of county, state and congressional district conventions into their proper perspective by selling new guidelines for each."

In modifying the precinct delegate's role, the Faust bills propose that delegates would be elected at every presidential election, improved methods of filling vacant precinct delegate positions, the creation of multi-delegate precincts and establishment of appeal committees to review party rules, procedures and practices at the grass root level.

Other proposals would reduce the number of electors required to vote at a voting machine from 600 to 400 thus expediting the voting process. A repeal of the present statute that suspends registration if an elector has not voted in two years, Faust proposes permanent registrations.

The reform package would also give any person in a prison or jail awaiting trial the right to vote as an absentee voter.

"I am a firm believer," said Faust, "that no one is guilty until so proven and sentenced. Consequently, I believe no one should be disenfranchised to vote while awaiting trial in a prison or jail."

In the area of equal rights for women, his proposals would require that women comprise at least one-third of the total membership of state, county and district committees of all political parties and that party state central committees be apportioned equally as to sex.

"In order to have a complete election system within our state," he said, "I have tried to bring the women's perspective into light by providing membership at all levels of the political structure."

Kreger receives new term

William E. Kreger has been reappointed to represent Wayne County on the Board of Commissioners of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, a regional agency with nine parks serving the citizens of the counties of Wayne, Livingston, Macomb, Oakland and Washtenaw.

The appointment was made by the Wayne County Board of Commissioners at their meeting held on Thursday, May 20. Kreger will serve a six-year term ending on May 15, 1977 and this is his fourth appointment to the seven-member HCMA Board. Kreger joined the Board in 1954, when he replaced the late Oscar A. Kaufman, who represented Wayne County on the original HCMA Commission formed in 1941.

Kreger is also the vice-

Q. Is there a state law that says a person must be buried in a Burial Vault or outer casing?

Mrs. J. Edwards

A. No, but it is a regulation set by most cemeteries today. The reason being that due to the caskets exposure to the elements, the ground above will sink or collapse several feet over a period of time because of pressure. Cemeteries maintain a set of regulations in an effort to insure public health, safety, and welfare.

Farming costs climb

While gross farm income jumped $17 billion in the 1960s, net income actually decreased $3 billion. Use of modern scientific methods to keep production up to meet the food needs of a growing population has caused the expenses of U.S. farmers to skyrocket. Only through the input of time and labor-saving agricultural efficiency is the farmer able to stay in the business of feeding the nation and the world.

OLD-FASHIONED FLAVOR. A good old-time dessert of Apple Honey Tapioca is a fine reason for inviting dolls to tea - be it a party of your own or one for your daughter's playmates. This dessert is one that appeals to all ages. Apples candied with honey make everything soft enough for youngsters to eat easily.

For your recipe file

Apple Honey Tapioca -- the kids' ll love it

Tapioca pudding will never interfere with good manners, it's so easy to eat. Soft, it slides down smoothly. Children like its mild flavor, too, acquired from the fruits combined with it, in this case apples with honey and lemon juice. Minute Tapioca has no flavor or color of its own, so all the fruit flavors shine through. The sprinkling of nutmeg and cinnamon is light to suit youngsters, but still enough to appeal to grown-ups if you decide to serve this dessert to the family.

Apricot Pudding is another fruited tapioca pudding that will be a favorite with the whole family. Made with milk, it has an extra nutrition bonus.

Apple Honey Tapioca

3 to 4 medium tart apples, peeled and cut into eighths (about 3 cups)
 1/2 cup honey
 3 tablespoons butter or margarine
 1 tablespoon lemon juice
 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
 1-3 cup quick-cooking tapioca
 2-3 cups water

Combine apples, honey, butter, lemon juice, lemon rind, salt, and spices in a large skillet. Cover and simmer over medium heat until apples are just tender. Baste apples occasionally with the honey mixture. Remove apples to serving dish. Add tapioca and water to honey mixture in skillet. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a boil. Pour over apples. Stir after 20 minutes. Serve warm with cream or hard sauce, if desired. Makes about 5 cups or 6 to 8 servings.

Apricot Pudding

1-3 cup quick-cooking tapioca
 2 cups milk
 1-3 cup sugar
 1-3 teaspoon salt
 1 tablespoon butter
 1/2 cup sweetened chopped cooked apricots

Combine tapioca, milk, sugar, salt, and butter in a saucepan. Let stand 5 minutes. Bring to a full boil, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Cool 20 minutes. Gently stir in fruit. Serve warm. Top with cream, if desired. Makes about 2-3 cups or 5 servings.

Mary Ives to close the book after 33 years in library

By LEE SMITH
 Women's Editor

Another chapter on the passing years of the community will have been written when, on June 5, Mrs. Arthur (Mary) Ives departs her post as assistant librarian at Belleville's Fred C. Fischer Library.

Mrs. Ives is bringing her 33-year career of cataloging books and people to a close with her retirement from the Wayne County Federated Library System next month.

Having its beginnings back in January of 1938, her Civil Service appointment placed her amid the small collection tomes then housed in the front of the Van Buren Township Hall. Her on-the-job training started under the tutelage of Mrs. Nina Todd and has continued under seven subsequent librarians terminating with Miss Helena McCullough.

But mainly, Mary says, "I'm just not going to have to hurry anymore."

Her many friends and patrons will miss seeing her pretty plaited grey hair winking in and about those aisles but if they'll just keep alert when they're on the streets of Belleville, they're sure to see lots of her. Mary is a walker and although she's 'not going to have to hurry anymore', I'll bet you we still see the same brisk step she's maintained all these years we've known her.

From a community faithfully served by her 'know-how', we wish her good luck and God speed.

Birth control pills affect rate of sugar metabolism

The hormones in birth control pills affect the rate of sugar metabolism in women say two Michigan State University food scientists.

"Women who take the pill cannot use up sugar as quickly as normal, and consequently they have higher blood sugar levels," says Dr. Modesto G. Yang, assistant professor of human nutrition and food science.

Kai Yui Lei, a doctoral student in MSU's food science and human nutrition department, reported the results of tests he conducted with Dr. Yang, to scientists at a Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology meeting April 14.

Scientists have noted higher blood sugar levels in women taking birth control pills, but there have also been reports of lower levels, said Lei.

In the study, Lei administered the two hormones which are the main ingredients of birth control pills -- progesterone and estrogen -- to female rats in dosages comparable to that for women taking the pill.

After four weeks, a period equivalent to five or six months in humans, some of the rats showed higher blood sugar levels.

Lei tested the rats' sugar levels by feeding them pure glucose and monitoring the glucose levels in the blood afterwards with blood tests.

The rats which had been taking progesterone, and progesterone and estrogen together, showed higher blood sugar levels for longer periods of time after eating glucose than did the control rats.

Using radioactive glucose, Lei found that tissue taken from rats given progesterone, or the two hormones together, could not use glucose as rapidly as the other rats not given the hormones.

"The implication is that the same thing is happening in women who take the pill," he said. "Somehow these hormones slow up the utilization of sugar."

Golden Ham Casserole

Ham usually has a hearty beginning as a roast for either festive occasion or family meal. However, a baked whole or half ham often provides extra meat. For a delectable dinner the second time around, dice the leftover meat and create a Golden Ham Casserole. It's easy - just combine the ham with a creamy sauce, top with cheesy drop biscuits and bake, advises Reba Staggs, home economist of the National Live Stock and Meat Board.

MR. AND MRS. GLENN DECORMIER

For and about Suburban Women

Picnics are fun and the food possibilities fantastic!

As sunny skies beckon you out-of-doors for a hike, a swim, or to exercise your green thumb... then a gay picnic is in order. Picnics are lots of fun when given just a little thought. There are foods on the market today lend themselves perfectly to outdoor cooking: foods that can be heated in the can to eliminate pots and pans—foods that are delicious without heating, served just-as-they-are from the can, and—many frozen foods that can be wrapped and cooked in aluminum foil. From start to finish, a full course meal can be served easily and attractively in grand picnic style.

Barbecued spareribs, hot dogs, bologna, chicken, and chuck steaks are sure favorites whenever there's a man in the crowd—they're excellent buys, too.

Kabobs can be one of the easiest and most decorative additions to your picnic table. Food combinations for them are almost numberless and ways of serving are limited only by your own imagination. Pineapple chunks add delicious flavor to meat on skewers. Arrange them alternately with cubes of meat and grill until heated through.

Pork and beans can be served from the can. Before placing the can over hot coals, remove paper label and open to allow for air expansion—a neat trick for picnics.

For herb buttered tomatoes: Wash, dry and remove stem ends (core) from tomatoes. Cut in quarters halfway through. Sprinkle with salt, pepper and basil; fill with a teaspoon of butter. Wrap securely in foil. Place over low heat on grill and cook until tender, about 15 to 20 minutes. At home place a block of frozen vegetables on a large square of foil. Spread with soft butter and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Seal package tightly to take to picnic. Grill over medium hot coals; turn several times.

Salad treats are just as the name implies—ready to eat and nippy in flavor! Many salads, such as the old reliable kidney bean salad, are made in advance, still others are simple finger foods—chilled tomatoes—crisp carrot and celery strips... apples or oranges... hard-cooked or deviled eggs... or serve cottage potato salad. Creamy cottage cheese adds flavor and nourishment to this popular picnic salad. Make your favorite cold potato salad. Add 2 cups (16-oz. carton) of creamed cottage cheese for each 3 cups of potatoes used. Chill well. For a crisp green picnic salad, wash greens carefully. Drain and pat dry. Place in a plastic bag and chill. Carry to picnic in an insulated container with other cold foods or ice cubes. Place in bowl and toss with dressing.

CUT A LOAF of French bread into thick diagonal slices, leaving attached at bottom. Spread with a seasoned butter. Wrap loaf in foil. Place over low heat for 5 to 10 minutes, or until heated through. Serve from foil.

No picnic is complete without pickles and catsup, however, you can put a smile on everyone's face by including a few additional accompaniments such as beans, olives, crab apples, jelly, and preserves.

Fruit and cheese kabob dessert: alternate cubes of cheese with chunks of fruit on wooden or metal skewers. Good combinations are pineapple chunks and Gouda or Edam cheese, bananas with sharp American cheese, pears with Swiss cheese, grapes with brick cheese.

Milk complements all kinds of picnic foods, and picnickers' hearty appetites call for a refreshing beverage. So take this nourishing food to your picnic in its unopened, original container. Keep it cold by packing in an insulated carrier, along with a plastic bag full of ice cubes; or wrap it in plenty of newspaper, with a can or two of frozen "canned ice." A can of frozen lemonade takes very little basket space. Why not let it thaw on the way to the picnic and add the water when you get there.

Make a list of your picnic needs and avoid the last minute rush. Don't forget the CAN OPENER.

To avoid turning your summer picnic into a unhappy affair, use quality foods, carefully prepared and sensibly handled. Without exception, all cooked foods should be refrigerated. Such foods as milk, eggs, chicken salad, potato salad, creamed chicken and meats are good examples of products that have been responsible for food poisoning. Never make a salad more than 24 hours before it is to be used. Always refrigerate salads until used. Don't carry picnic foods in the trunk of your car unless they are in insulated containers (either hot or cold).

Newlywed DeCormiers honeymoon in Florida

Candlelight formed the setting May 1 for the wedding of Kathy M. Broughton of Belleville and Glen DeCormier of Livonia. Sprays of carnations and roses graced the altar of the First United Methodist Church of Belleville as Rev. Charles Dibley read the double ring nuptial rite.

Some 350 guests were assembled for the ceremony which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Broughton of 40521 Alden Drive, Belleville, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack DeCormier of 29422 Hathaway, Livonia.

Following their reception at the P.N.A. Hall, the newlyweds departed for a 10-day honeymoon in Florida. They are now making their home at Lake in the Woods Apartments on Ford Lake, Ypsilanti.

ESCORTED TO THE sanctuary by her father, Kathy appeared in a toe-touching creation of silk organza over taffeta with Venice lace forming the high neckline and pearls and iridescents accenting the empire bodice. Featuring long, belled sleeves gathered at the wrist, the A-line dress terminated in a chapel train.

Her veil of French silk illusion was cut in fingertip length and fell from a headpiece of pearls and aurora borealis crystals. Completing her bridal finery was a bouquet of white chrysanthemums centered with a detachable corsage for traveling.

As her sister's honor attendant, Mrs. Linda Laughlin of Belleville donned a yellow organza and taffeta hooped gown style with a scooped neckline. A headpiece of looped ribbon with a shoulder-length veil attached and a nosegay of carnations tipped in yellow completed her ensemble.

GOWNED IN identical mint green costumes and carrying bouquets of green-tipped carnations, the bridesmaids were Deborah and Sharon Broughton, sisters of the bride; Mrs. Debbie Lane, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Marie Fitzhugh; and Linda Cole.

Daniel Black of Dearborn Heights was asked to be best man. Others on the esquire side were Randy Bureau of Royal Oak; Gary McFeaters of Allen Park; Dewey Lane, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; James Broughton, brother of the bride; and Patrick Laughlin, brother-in-law of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Broughton chose a mist green polyester dress with jacket top while Mrs. DeCormier donned an apricot coat-dress ensemble. Both mothers were presented with white carnations tipped to match their frocks.

GUESTS ATTENDING the wedding and dinner-dance reception included three sets of grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Blade from the Upper Peninsula; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Broughton from Kentucky; and Mrs. Bella DeCormier of Detroit. All the grandmothers and hostess, Kathy Hoeft, were presented with carnation corsages.

Other friends and relatives attended from Holland, Sault Ste. Marie, St. Clair Shores, Port Huron, Birmingham, Hale, Dearborn Heights, and neighboring cities.

The new Mrs. DeCormier is a graduate of Belleville High School and since her graduation in 1969, she has worked in the office of K-Mart, Ypsilanti.

Her husband, a 1965 graduate of Garden City High School, attended Schoolcraft College. He has since completed four years training in Kresge's executive management program, worked as assistant manager at the Ypsilanti K-Mart and is presently at the Woodhaven K-Mart as a set-up man.

The prospective bridegroom, a 1967 graduate of Lincoln High School, attended Michigan State University for two years prior to entering the service. He is now home after serving with the U.S. Army, 14 months of which were spent in Vietnam. An employee of the Ford Motor Company at Rawsonville, he plans to attend E.M.U. in the fall.

Men in Service

Army Private David J. Dickerson, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward K. Dickerson, 43824 Palmer Rd., Route 1, Belleville, recently completed eight weeks of basic training at the U.S. Army Training Center, Armor, Ft. Knox, Ky.

He received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, combat tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and army history and traditions.

Airman James R. Collum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Collum, 32430 Prescott, Romulus, has received his first U.S. Air Force duty assignment after completing basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex.

The airman has been assigned to a unit of the Tactical Air Command at Holloman AFB, N.M., for training and duty in metalworking. Airman Collum attended Huron High School, New Boston.

Navy Petty Officer Second Class Michael Carwana, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Carwana of 33511 Castle Dr., Romulus, is aboard the guided missile destroyer USS Sellers which is participating in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) training exercise "Dawn Patrol 71" in the Mediterranean Sea.

The exercise involves more than 60 ships, ranging in size from aircraft carriers to fast patrol boats, and 300 aircraft from the U.S., Greece, Italy, Turkey and the United Kingdom.

Huron approves activities program

The Huron School Board has approved a physical activities program to be instituted after this year's graduation ceremonies.

The program, with final details to be worked out, was adopted by the school board following a detailed discussion of the school district's recently held Drug Abuse Program.

The Drug Abuse Program, an "attack on drugs" was in the form of four seminars held at the high school in March and early May.

It was designed by an advisory group composed of students, concerned citizens, the Huron Jaycees and Roger Benner, director of Community School Program.

The school board approved the Drug Abuse Program and gave its continued support by initiating the physical activities program as an additional means of combating the drug problem. The board authorized the use of school buildings for the program.

The physical activities scheduled will include karate and judo and other related courses, it was reported. Presently under consideration of the school board is the matter of the use of roller skates on gymnasium floors of the school system.

School Superintendent Byron K. Antcliff was authorized by the board to pursue the matter in an experimental form to determine if the skates will or will not damage the gym floors.

"The idea of the proposed Physical Activities Program is to give our young folks something to do. One of the main goals in combating the drug problem is to keep them busy educationally and physically. Having nothing to do, they get into drugs," Carl K. Rush, school board president, said in commenting on the program.

Students return from camp trip

When 85 sixth grade students returned to Gordonia Elementary School last Friday afternoon after a five day camping trip at Skinner Lake, they were surprised to have a welcoming committee greet them with cup cakes and Koolaid.

Among those who assisted the campers during their stay at the Lapeer Camp were Ralph Connon, Mrs. Helen Ruark, Mrs. Beatrice West, Mrs. Mary Lou Fox and School Principal Dan Murray.

Volunteer Youth Counselors were Pat Bell, Betty Dew, Glenn Hayes, Karen Maxwell, Jill Haislip, Joe Player, John Ozga, Barbara Maciejewski, Bill Crook and Bill Raack.

Mrs. Burdeen Marcum, Mrs. Carolyn Jesko and Mrs. Phyllis Persondek had prepared the treat.

Scholarships awarded

Miss Brenda Blanton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Blanton of 8775 Cogswell Rd., Romulus, has been awarded scholarships that will enable her to attend the University of Michigan in September.

She will receive a Michigan Competitive Scholarship award and a Michigan Opportunity Grant that will provide for her tuition, fees, and housing.

Miss Blanton will graduate thirteenth in her class and has been active in the Romulus Theatre Arts productions, the Romulus High School Ski Club and is a member of National Honor Society.

She plans a career as a naturalist with a major in ecology.

Lodge has celebration for 25th anniversary

Romulus Lodge Degree of Honor celebrated its 25th Birthday and Inspection last Tuesday evening. Approximately 40 members and friends were dinner guests.

All the State Officers were attired in their pastel formals, and the Romulus Officers in white ones.

The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Olive Caswell of Belleville and the response by Mrs. Vernetta Allen of Detroit.

The Invocation was given by Mrs. Aleta Williamson of Highland Park. A beautiful and very large birthday cake was cut by the organizer of Romulus Lodge, Mrs. Helen Dosmos of Grosse Pointe. She donated the cake to the Lodge. A full course chicken dinner was served.

Following the dinner, the hall was cleared and the meeting called to order at 8 p.m. by the president of the lodge, Mrs. Dorothy Crook. Romulus officers held their incoming march. Flags were presented. The Bible opened. And the meeting begun.

The national officers were introduced and welcomed as were the state officers and other visiting dignitaries.

The State Director of Michigan Mrs. Aleta Williamson is also the national treasurer.

The Initiatory ceremony was conducted and 11 new members were added to Romulus Lodge. There were three charter members in attendance who were presented with 25 year pins: They were Mrs. Eva Oakley of Romulus, Mrs. Marie Rehkop and Mrs. Cecelia Renke, also of Romulus.

The Glee club rendered three songs especially appropriate for the evening and the words were composed by Marie Rehkop.

Remarks were given by the state director, who congratulated Romulus Lodge and wished for them another 25 years of progress.

Mrs. Dosmos also congratulated Romulus Lodge as did the State Vice President, Mrs. Hermina Wright.

Mrs. Allison Koester, a charter member of the Lodge and entitled to her 25 year pin, is in Oakwood Hospital and was unable to be present.

The closing ceremonies were held, the flags retired and the Bible closed. And the Romulus Officers held their retiring march.

NEW PTO CHAIRMAN — Mrs. Dorothy Florian, 14440 Elwell Rd. (left) was elected chairman of the Parent-Teacher Organization at the Edgemont Elementary School at a recent meeting. She succeeds Mrs. Mary Ann Bassett, 11385 Harmony Lane, who has served as chairman for the last two years. Mrs. Bassett (right) was presented with a charm bracelet in recognition of her service to the PTO and Edgemont School.

Permission removed

The State of Michigan Fire Marshall has notified the Romulus Board of Education that permission to use rooms as classrooms at the Special Services Center would be revoked after June, Assistant School Superintendent William E. Jakad, disclosed Monday.

The Special Services Center is located at Washington and Atlas Sts., Romulus.

The school has had temporary approval to use certain rooms but the building has now been condemned for classroom use.

Two classes of six graders from the Cory Elementary School that were to be housed at the Special Services Center in September will have to be housed elsewhere, Jakad said.

Head Start program activities are reported

The Romulus Head Start Parent Council issued a report this week on its Activities Program.

This year, through the cooperation of Gerald Nault, principal of Romulus Senior High School, and Mrs. Jason Lovette, students at the high school had the opportunity to observe and work with pre-school and kindergarten classes in the school district.

Elementary school principals and teachers in the Head Start program welcomed these students and afforded them a full day's experience in observing and working with children.

The Head Start Parent Council believes that everything learned from children cannot come from books but must come from personal contact and working together. It is hoped that the high school students will develop a better understanding of the young child in order that they may be able to assist in working with young children in pre-schools and day care centers of all kinds; also that they may better understand the behavior of their own children when they become parents.

Five girls have come in every Friday to the Romulus Head Start class since April 23. They are: Angel Lee Madison, Fay Johnson, Gladys Kizart, Charlotte Robinson and Terry Hardist. These Child Development students remain in both the morning and afternoon class and participate in all of the day's activities with the children.

Sixty persons (parents, staff and children) made a trip to the Detroit Institute of Arts recently to see a puppet show.

The Head Start's morning teacher Mrs. Janet Block has been promoted to Supervisor of the Romulus Head Start Center.

The children of the afternoon class boarded the bus (May 14) for a visit to the Fire Department and Inkster Police Station.

Remember June 14 is National Flag Day. Every businessman and every resident should display the flag on that date.

Years ago a group of tourists in New Mexico came upon an old Indian astride a pony. Beside him walked his Indian squaw, heavily burdened. "Why doesn't the woman ride?" asked a visitor. "She doesn't have a pony," answered the native.

Construction gets under way for condominium complex

Groundbreaking ceremonies were held for Belle Villa Townhouses, a new condominium development to be constructed on a 28-acre site near Sumpter and Hull Rds., Belleville.

When completed, the development will include 291 townhouses, most of them three-and-two-bedroom units. Prices will range from $17,990 to $21,990. Grand opening is scheduled for July 15.

Presiding over the groundbreaking ceremony, held last Thursday, was Belleville Mayor Royce Smith. He was assisted by his Student Government Day counterpart, Keith Patalocco, a senior at Belleville High School.

Also participating were the developers, Edward Kuzel, Charles Paas, James Ackron and Louis Toth, all Belleville businessmen; Will A. Schwehr, president of RDE Corporation, which will handle sales of the townhouses; and Roblee Martin and William Eubanks, president and sales manager, respectively, of Fruehauf Buildings, which will produce the modular townhouse units.

The units will be of galvanized steel frame construction, with brick fronts and aluminum siding. Name-brand, maintenance free materials will be used throughout. Each unit will be fully insulated and soundproofed.

Extreme care has been taken to preserve open spaces in this planned community. There will be many play modules, walk and bike ways off the flow of traffic and a swimming pool for the exclusive use of Belle Villa residents. There will even be a greenbelt separating each unit from its two parking spaces.

The townhouses will be privately financed with no federal subsidies or mortgage insurance. They will be geared to buyers who earn too much to qualify for subsidized housing and too little to buy most conventionally-financed homes. "With down payments as low as 10 per cent these townhouses will be aimed at a forgotten segment of the housing market," Schwehr said.

Monthly mortgage payments will run about $140, Schwehr said. In addition, a $32 to $40 monthly payment to the condominium association will cover insurance, exterior maintenance, grounds care and operation of community facilities.

Fruehauf Buildings, a division of Fruehauf Corporation, is currently manufacturing the Belleville Townhouses at its Ypsilanti plant pending completion of a new production facility, now under construction in Milan.

PRESCAD program

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

Sentimentalist or not, if you ever saw or see the traditional service at the shrine of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington National Cemetery on Memorial Day, you would have or see moist eyes, quivering lips, a tightening of the throat in reverent silence.

The story behind the story of the Unknown Soldier is drama without equal on any stage. It starts first with New York Congressman Hamilton Fish introducing a House Joint Resolution to have an unidentified, killed in action American Soldier returned from France for reinterment at Arlington. The drama continues with Admiral Dewey's famous flagship "Olympia" commissioned to return the body to America with Marine Corps escort. In story book manner, the drama relates the care with which anonymity was made certain — how the selection was made — how an ordinary American, a Chicago orphan, as a Sergeant in France was chosen and ordered to walk into a room and place a bouquet of roses on one of four unidentified caskets — how Sergeant Younger placed the bouquet and thus made a selection which he later described as God's choice.

The tomb of the Unknown Soldier is more than a symbol of sentiment. It is an American voice which gives thanks to the glory of God that we as Americans, can and do respect the honor and memory of our departed ones, soldiers and civilians alike ...
